

FOUNDATIONS BIBLE STUDY

STUDY TWO – SALVATION (part one)

Sin is something we are all born in. It rebels against God. Sin turns into outward acts that create distance between us and God. We are all sinners in this way. Our sinful lives rob God of the glory He wants and deserves.

Sin has three results or penalties:

Death inside, in our spirit

Death of our bodies

Being locked up and tortured in a dark place away from God forever

Jesus came to save us from our sins. Jesus Himself never sinned. But He took our sins upon Himself. He died in our place, and He rose again from the dead. Jesus did this so that we might be forgiven and live forever with Him.

Final Thoughts

Man's sin is his failure to carry out his God-given duty. Man was created to glorify God. "He [man] is the image and glory of God. Anything that fails to glorify God is sinful.

The arrow falls short of it. The "mark" for man is to live life to "the glory of God." But the Bible says that all have fallen short of this mark.

We commit sin by doing something that God forbids. We also sin when we omit, or refuse, to do something God commands. We are just as guilty when we do not do what is good and right.

For a time, sin was "covered" by the sacrifices of the law of Moses. But by the death of Jesus, sin was put away forever. Unforgiven sin separates God and man. Sin was put away by Jesus on the cross. Then the way was opened for man to come back to God. Jesus is more than enough
